

Economic dependency ratio,¹ both sexes, equivalent territories of the Nord-du-Québec region, 2001-2005

	2001	2002	2003	2004	2005
	$ per $100 of employment income
Jamésie
Total government transfers	22.41	19.54	20.16	19.01	21.76
Employment insurance	5.98	4.23	4.48	3.28	3.54
GST	0.75	0.67	0.67	0.68	0.72
Child Tax Benefits	3.52	3.41	3.50	3.63	4.01
Old Age Security	2.82	2.66	2.84	2.88	3.08
Canada and Québec pension plans	1.95	2.16	2.19	2.22	2.38
Worker's Compensation	1.24	1.18	1.22	1.22	1.54
Social assistance	4.04	3.68	3.72	3.58	3.37
Provincial refundable tax credits/ family allowances	2.11	1.54	1.53	1.52	3.11
Kativik
Total government transfers	16.83	15.53	15.52	15.50	17.59
Employment insurance	2.83	2.79	2.61	2.86	2.45
GST	0.71	0.67	0.70	0.69	0.73
Child Tax Benefits	4.66	4.36	4.34	4.35	4.60
Old Age Security	1.83	1.66	1.58	1.54	1.53
Canada and Québec pension plans	1.03	1.31	1.34	1.42	1.42
Worker's Compensation	0.26	0.37	0.42	0.41	0.32
Social assistance	3.05	2.35	2.43	2.26	2.13
Provincial refundable tax credits/ family allowances	2.46	2.03	2.11	1.97	4.41

1. For a given region, the economic dependency ratio is the amount of government transfers received for every $100 of the region's total employment income.

Source: Statistics Canada, Economic Dependency Profiles.

July 10, 2007

Symbols used in tables